

The Department of English and the Holocaust Education Center at Michlalah-Jerusalem College

invite you to a unique evening of study and inspiration

GROWING UP IN THE SHADOW OF THE HOLOCAUST: FINDING IDENTITY, KEEPING FAITH

This special event will take place on Tuesday Evening, February 22, 2011, אור ני"ט אדר א

Guest Speakers: Rabbi Yosef Wallis and Rabbi Berel Wein

- 5:15-6:00 Special Art Exhibit—"פנים מאירות" - Faces in Light of Our Memories"
Continuous viewing, with an explanation by artist Shacharit David
 - 5:30-6:00 Registration and Seating
 - 6:00 Opening Remarks
Professor Devorah Rosenwasser, Dean, Michlalah-Jerusalem College
Rebbetzin Esther Farbstein, Head, Holocaust Education Center
 - 6:15 A Special Blessing
Mrs. Rose Stark, survivor of Auschwitz, speaker and writer
 - 6:30 "My Zeide, My Father, My Self: Finding Faith From The Flames"
Rabbi Yosef Wallis
 - 7:15 "Searching for Myself"—Mrs. Chava Heftler, child survivor
 - 7:45 "A Meeting in the Woods"—a short documentary film
 - 8:10 "Differing Reactions to the Holocaust - Survivors, Americans and Young People"
Rabbi Berel Wein
- Moderator of the Evening:
Dr. Emmy Zitter, English Department Chair, Michlalah-Jerusalem College

Separate seating for men and women

Refreshments will be served

Entrance Fee: 15 NIS for advance registration, 25 NIS at the door

Location: Michlalah-Jerusalem College Auditorium, Bayit Vegan, Jerusalem, Bus #21, 21A

For information and registration, call Dini at 02-6750-967/8 weekdays between 9:00-14:00

The evening is in memory of Shlomo Nochum ben Yosef, H'YD, murdered in Auschwitz before his first birthday

Supported by:

ועידת התביעות
Claims Conference
The Conference on Jewish Material
Claims Against Germany
www.claimscon.org